

Visions In Feminism Art Night

A split benefit for the 4th Annual Visions In Feminism Conference and Helping Individual Prostitutes Survive

May 7th

Doors open at 8pm

Warehouse Next Door

1021 7th Street

Only $6

Music

Partyline, members of Bratmobile & Hott Beat
Paper Doll, DC Indie Rawk
Gaia Drummers
Lead City Ramblers, Banjo and fiddle bluegrass duo
Drag King performance

Writing

Sonya Taylor, Spoken Word Artist
Claire Zulkey, Chicago-based humorist

Dance

Harem of Queens, bellydancing

Film

Tepid Fish Productions, hilarious filmmakers from B'more

Raffle Featuring

Pisces Soap, "Smart Women" products, bar tabs, movie tickets, CDs, artwork, handmade purses, jewelry, t-shirts, and prize packs from Video American, Washington City Paper, Knit Happens, the First Ladies DJ Collective and MORE!

Emcee'd by NYC-based stand up comedian, Sara Polon